

The 2020 FSNH Kay Sidway Award for Family Support

Established 2013

Family Support NH established the Kay Sidway award for Family Support to recognize a professional working in the field of family support who embodies the skills and values that inspired so many to look to Kay Sidway, former director of the Children's Place and Parent Education Center, as a mentor. Kay was an early champion in New Hampshire of parent leadership, family resource centers, and the importance of early childhood.

Criteria:

Family Support NH invites nominations for the Kay Sidway award for Family Support for professionals who:

- Provide direct services to children and families in family support and strengthening, a family resource center, in parent leadership, or parent education for a minimum of 5 years.
- Work for an FSNH member agency.
- Embody family support principles. (<http://www.fsnh.org>)
- Demonstrates strength-based practice and skill in promoting family protective factors. (<http://www.nhchildrenstrust.org/program/strengthening-families>)

Process:

Nominations may be submitted via email either using the form provided or providing all the information on the form to info@FSNH.org through September 25, 2020. Each FSNH member agency may submit one nomination per year. One nomination per nominee is sufficient to be considered. Nominations will be reviewed by a committee of the FSNH Board of Directors. The award recipient and nominator will be notified of the committee's choice.

Award:

The FSNH Kay Sidway award for Family Support is given annually and presented at the Family Support NH Annual Meeting on October 20, 2020.
